The Powerbroker:
Whitney Young's Fight for Civil Rights

SOUL FOOD JUNKIES

by Byron Hurt

JAN

Soul food lies at the heart of African American cultural identity. The black community's love affair with soul food is deep-rooted, complex, and in some cases, deadly. Soul Food Junkies puts this culinary tradition under the microscope to examine both its significance and its consequences.

THE POWERBROKER: WHITNEY YOUNG'S FIGHT FOR CIVIL RIGHTS

by Bonnie Boswell

FEB

Whitney M. Young, Jr. was one of the most celebrated and controversial leaders of the civil rights era. As executive director of the National Urban League, he took the struggle for equality directly to the powerful white elite, gaining allies in business and government, including three presidents.

Community Cinema is a national civic engagement initiative featuring monthly screenings of films from the Emmy® Award-winning PBS series Independent Lens. Community Cinema brings communities together to learn, discuss and get involved in today's critical social issues. Find events and learn more at communitycinema.org
