ALMOST HOME, a film by Brad Lichtenstein and Lisa Gildehaus, rescues the real stories of aging from an exile of denial. A stunningly intimate documentary shot on location in a nursing home, Almost Home tells the unflinchingly honest stories of couples both bonded and divided by disability and dementia, children torn between caring for their parents and caring for their children, nursing assistants doing unsavory work for poverty wages and a visionary nursing home director committed to transforming his century-old hospital-like institution into a true home.

ALMOST HOME WILL AIR NATIONALLY ON THE EMMY AWARD-WINNING PBS SERIES INDEPENDENT LENS ON FEBRUARY 21, 2006 AT 10:00PM. CHECK LOCAL LISTINGS.

ALMOST HOME is a co-production of 371 Productions and Wisconsin Public Television produced in association with the Independent Television Service (ITVS), with funding provided by the Helen Bader Foundation, the Jacob and Valeria Langeloth Foundation, Retirement Research Foundation, the Corporation for Public Broadcasting, The Fay McBeath Foundation and support from University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee's Peck School of the Arts and Center on Age and Community.
