MARCH POINT

By Tracy Rector and Annie Silverstein

Cody, Nick and Travis, three teens from the Swinomish Indian Tribe, wanted to make a gangster movie or a rap video. But instead they became intrigued by two large oil refineries on their tribal land. With cameras in hand, what they discover is shocking—a toxic legacy of dangerous pollutants contaminating their own backyard. In a quest for answers, the boys travel to Washington, D.C. to meet with federal officials and politicians, while discovering the power of their determination.

MARCH POINT WILL AIR NATIONALLY ON THE EMMY AWARD-WINNING PBS SERIES INDEPENDENT LENS IN MARCH 2008. CHECK LOCAL LISTINGS.
